

6th November 2015

Dear Parents/Carers,

I am pleased to be able to offer you a further opportunity to attend the presentation that was given to parents on 1st October on Wednesday 25th November at 7.30 pm. I trust that the timing will better suit working parents. Unfortunately, however, we are unable to offer childcare.

LIFE AFTER LEVELS

No more National Curriculum levels
We've said goodbye to Level 2, Level 3b and Level 5
Now we're saying 'Entering Year 2, Developing Year 4 and Secure Year 5

Confused?

If you would like to learn more about how we are assessing pupils' attainment in Years 1-6, then please do come along to this presentation; you will be talked through our new method of assessment, informed of the new-style tests in Year 2 and Year 6 and updated on what is happening nationally regarding primary school assessment.

To help give you some background information about why these changes have occurred, you might like to watch the 11-minute video by Tim Oates, who chaired the expert panel on the review of the National Curriculum, using the link below:

Mr Jackson
